OUR ADVICE FOR YOU

Communication is key. It's better to ask than to assume stuff. So ask away anything that helps you understand what you need to do.

Stick to a schedule, ask for meetings if something is unclear. We are here to help you.

Don't be afraid to take initiative. We value people who share thoughts and ideas. We do not do micromanagement, so it is highly unlikely to hear from us "do this" or "do that".

Make a plan. Share your plan with us.

Use the tools we use. If you are not familiar with it, we will happily answer any questions you might have.
